

SUBSCRIPTION DATABASES

Watauga Public Library has purchased the following databases for your use. They are available to you from the Library and, in some cases, from anywhere you access the Internet. Find them on the Library web page on the Reference page. Those databases that are available only from the Library are marked (In-library use only). If you need assistance in using any of these databases, please consult a Librarian at the Reference Desk, or call (817) 514-5865.

Ancestry.Com

Ancestry.com includes census information from 1790 to 1930, birth, marriage & death records, U.S. military records and the U.K. census collection. It also includes New York and San Francisco passenger lists, naturalization records, and ship photos. (In-library use only) Available on the desktop at computers in the library.

AtoZ Maps Online

Access maps of all kinds: political maps, physical maps, outline maps, population maps, precipitation maps, climate maps, and other thematic maps.

Global Road Warrior

Use this resource to research a country or plan international travel. Find maps, photos, and answers on currency, food, society and culture, and more for 175 countries.

Issues & Controversies

In depth coverage of more than 600 hot topics; includes newspaper editorials, biographies, news updates, relevant Web sites, bibliographies, chronologies, maps, graphs, tables, photos, and a directory of organizations to contact for further information. Obtain a user name and password from the Reference Desk by showing your Watauga Public Library card, or call (817) 514-5865.

LearningExpress Library.com

Provides access to over 350 practice tests including SAT, GED, ASVAB, TAKS, AP and U.S. Citizenship. It also includes practice tests for civil service and vocational career certification. Your Watauga Public Library card is your passport to this interactive test preparation and practice resource at home, or use it at the library.

Magill's Medical Guide

Magill's Medical Guide is a medical reference covering topics such as diseases and human physiology. Watauga Public Library cardholders have access in the Library and at home, in addition to print versions available in the Reference section of the Library. To use at home, select the "Remote Access Login" tab, then enter the first five digits of your Watauga Public Library card.

netLibrary

NetLibrary provides access to your library's eContent collection of 27 thousand electronic books. eContent is the digital version of books, journals, and database content. You can access your library's eContent 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The titles are also cataloged and indexed in the Horizon Information Portal, your library's online catalog. Come into the Library to set up your own free netLibrary account and access netLibrary directly, or through the Library on-line catalog. A Watauga Public Library card is required to get set up.

ReferenceUSA

Detailed information on more than 12 million U.S. businesses compiled from phone books, annual reports, 10-Ks and other SEC information, government data, etc. and verified by phone calls to the businesses. Each U.S. residential listing also contains information from the most recent U.S. census, including median household income, median home value, latitude/longitude and percentage of owner-occupied housing. (In-library use only)

TELL ME MORE

A comprehensive online language instructional program covering reading, writing, speaking, listening, grammar, vocabulary and culture, powered by Auralog. English, Spanish, French, German, Italian, and Dutch are available. A limited number of accounts for Watauga Public Library cardholders only are available. To get started, log onto the Library website, click on the Online Databases link, then click on the Tell Me More link in blue. Use your Watauga Public Library card to set up your own TELL ME MORE account, or call the Reference Desk for more information.

LIBRARY OF TEXAS

(LibraryofTexas.org)

Simultaneously search through multiple Texas library catalogs for books, periodicals, newspapers, CDs, and other items. This is a handy way to search several Tarrant County libraries at once. There may be a non-resident fee to borrow materials from some libraries. If you have a library card from Watauga Public Library, you may obtain a user name and password at the Reference Desk. Call (817) 514-5865. Limited searches may be done without a password.

The Library of Texas is a program of the Texas State Library and Archives Commission.

INTERLIBRARY LOAN

Request a title, subject, or article from libraries throughout Texas and the United States. Complete an ILL request form available at the Check Out Desk. Forms and the Interlibrary Loan policy are also available on the Library web site. (Select Reference from the menu.)
